What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels, (as mucous colitis), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections it is often successful in effecting cures.

The "Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities incident to women only. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nervine. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulæ of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.

The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

SENSATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS.

Developments of the most sensational character marked the trial of Prof. Carl Hau, the Washington (D. C.) man accused of murdering his mother-in-law, Frau Molitor, at Baden-Baden on November 6 last, from the very opening of the proceedings at Carlsruhe, Germany.

Charges made by Attorney Dietz, representing Hau, that the latter's wife had been driven to commit suicide to escape persecution by the German authorities in an effort to force her to make damaging statements against her husband and that she had been threatened with arrest as an accomplice in the alleged murder unless she furnished incriminating evidence against him caused a remarkable demonstration against Prosecutor Beicher in the courtroom.

The name of John D. Rockefeller was dragged into the trial as showing that he was interested in the American syndicate whose interests Hau had gone to Constantinople to promote.

Dietz's charges of the persecution of Mrs. Hau created the sensation of the day. He produced evidence that the examining magistrate had repeatedly pressed the wife to testify against Hau. All sorts of devices were resorted to in the effort to extract such evidence.

The new explanation of her suicide that she had been driven to it in desperation to escape persecution, caused shouts of "shame," "cowards," etc., to come from the spectators. Prosecutor Beicher tried to stop Dietz and a long wrangle followed.

At the afternoon session Olga Molitor, who accompanied her mother on the fatal walk, finest to hearing the steps of a person walking back and forth in the park. These steps seemed suddenly to come much nearer, and then there was a "terrific" explosion in the immediate vicinity. Her mother sank unconscious. Olga saw a man making haste to get away. The collar of his overcoat was turned up. The lower part of the man's coat was wide and flowing, as described by other witnesses who saw Hau at the Karlsruhe station. Olga said she did not see the man's face. She denied emphatically the existence of any relations between her and Hau which would explain his return to Baden Badeu.

The station agent at Baden Baden was then called and said he recognized Hau as the man who arrived on November 4 disguised with a false beard. Various baggage porters of Carlsruhe testified that Hau, when he left his baggage, was wearing a false beard, but that he had ne beard when he returned to claim it.

Karl Hau was married to Lena, daughter of a wealthy widow in Baden Baden seven years ago. Mrs. Moliter, the mother, was opposed to the match at first, for Hau was six years younger than the young woman, who had a dowry of $50,000, while Hau had nothing. The widow, however, was finally persuaded to consent to the match. A few months later Hau and his wife went to Washington, where he entered the George Washington University. He earned the degree of A. M. and LL. D. there and finally an appointment to the chair of international law. In October last Hau announced his intention of returning to America, and on October 25 he and his wife and child left Baden Baden for Frankfort. There he persuaded his wife to go without him to London, on the plea of business, and wait for him at the Hotel Cecil. On November 1 Mrs. Moliter received a telegram from another married daughter, asking her to meet her (the daughter) in Paris. As Mrs. Moliter knew her daughter had left Paris, she did not go, regarding the telegram as a mistake or harmless hoax. On the evening of November 6 she received a telephone message at her house requesting her to go to the postoffice for a registered letter, and, with a young daughter, set forth. On a quiet, tree-shaded street she was met by a bearded man, who shot her, the daughter running away and giving the alarm to the police. The police learned from Mrs. Moliter's servant that it sounded like Hau's voice at the telephone, that Hau had just left his lodgings and had taken a train for London, that he was wearing a false beard, and that he had sent to his wife in London this message: "Arrive tomorrow night. Don't betray address." So the German police telegraphed to the police in London and Hau was arrested at the Hotel Cecil.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 18, 1907.

MAYOR CUTCHIN, of Roanoke, is the right man in the right place, but, unfortunately, like other well-meaning people in official positions, he is not receiving the support of the City Council or the police force. On last Saturday night, when fifteen as twenty out-laws attacked eating houses conducted by Greeks the Mayor took his life in his own hands and strove to quell the disorder. He subsequently convened the City Council in special session and requested that a committee be appointed to ascertain the damage inflicted upon the Greeks in order that the same could be satisfied out of the city treasury. This was right. The Greeks were conducting business under city licenses, and were entitled to the protection of the police. The City Council refused to comply with the Mayor's reasonable request, and the latter has called a meeting of citizens of Roanoke for the purpose of taking suitable action toward the payment of the damages inflicted by the mob. The Mayor attended the extra session of the Common Council and the Board of Alderman Tuesday night and after the latter body had declined to adopt the course he suggested he arose and said:

Every man present at the scenes of the disorder in the eyes of the law was a rioter, but I am frank to tell you there has been no disposition on the part of the police to punish those who were onlookers. I am so humiliated at the proceedings of the City Council that I am not as proud of the position of mayor as I have been, because it appears that several members of the council have lined up on the other side.

It is disgraceful when people calling themselves good citizens or councilmen manifest sympathy for rowdies and thus hamper the enforcement of law, but when policemen stand by and witness disorders or show sympathy with outlaws, they should be made to resign at once.

PROCEEDINGS WERE begun several days ago in Richmond with a view to testing the constitutionality of the law which empowers the Chancery Court clerks to probate wills. Since the law was passed, the clerks have probated a large number of wills, and the question of most concern is whether or not these instruments will be valid should the act under which the clerks acted be declared null and void. The opinion is expressed by leading attorneys that if the legislative act should be set aside by the courts it would affect every will filed since that power was vested in the court and the legal complications that would follow are many and serious.

THE three hundredth anniversary of American shipbuilding will be celebrated by towns at the mouth of the Kennebec on the 5th of August. The subsidy hunters will insist that the celebration should be a funeral, but the fact that the ship construction in the United States in the last fiscal year was the greatest in its history puts their suggestion out of order. In the foreign carrying trade, however, competition has carried the profits down below a point satisfactory to Americans who have found railroads more remunerative than ships, either of sail or steam.

THE new naturalization law will have the good effect of preventing foreigners from obtaining naturalization certificates after a brief residence and then living permanently in their native homes as American citizens. After a given time of residence abroad their American citizenship comes to an end and their certificates of naturalization are of no use to them. Some who have obtained these certificates will find in them no protection when intriguing against their own governments.

IT IS stated that it cost Robert M. Wood, of Winchester, $889.51 to secure the nomination in the Tenth district in the Virginia Senate, and his defeated opponent, Judge F. S. Tavenner, of Woodstock, lost $571.25. The pay of the office is four dollars per diem for sixty days. And the new election laws were supposedly passed to prevent the use of money in elections!

IN AN editorial the Libre Parole of Paris says: "President Roosevelt himself has lost some of his humbug prestige. He has talked too much, meddled in too many matters and intervened to many negotiations which did not concern him." The Parole sees the President pretty much as do many people on this side of the ocean.

From Washington.

Washington, July 18.

Infuriated because they believed that he had taken liberties with the moon, the Igorotes, in the hills of northern Luzon, P. I., have frightened J. C. Early, an American school teacher, so badly that he has asked the insular authorities for another assignment. According to advices received here, the natives became alarmed over an eclipse. As the darkness deepened, the Igorote chiefs spread the news that the "Maestro Americano" had used his mysterious powers to pull a veil over the moon that had shone on the land of the Igorotes for eternity as a punishment for some fanciful offense. All the people in the vicinity gathered in front of the house of the teacher, looking for trouble. They demanded the American, but he laid low. It was a race of endurance between the anger of the natives and the eclipse of the moon. The former finished strong, but lost. Early wants to get out of the land of Igorotes before there are any more eclipses.

The War Department is working hard to mine Philippine and Hawaii harbors without delay. Although officials deny that there is any special significance to the present movement, and explain that they are merely expending $150,000 appropriated for that purpose by the last Congress, it is known that there is a desire to get the material shipped in August. No less than 494 mines will be put in Manila harbor and 209 mines in Subig bay. Two big searchlights are to be erected in Manila harbor and another will be stationed at Subig bay. Coast defense are being sent to Atlantic and Pacific points. The next Congress will be asked for $1,000,000 more for insular defenses.

Negotiations are being conducted entirely in London between United States Ambassador Reid and the British Foreign Office for the conclusion of another modus vivendi to cover the approaching herring fishing season off the coast of Newfoundland. Despite the fact that the new season will begin towards the end of this month, the negotiations are making slow progress.

The extreme pessimism in regard to the probable outcome of winter wheat and rye, which market the report of these crops in Europe early in the spring, has been greatly modified during June, according to the report of the Department of Agriculture, complied from statements from European observers.

Captain Hubbard, in command of the battleship Minnesota, narrowly escaped the same fate in Hampton Roads, the other night, that drowned six of his midshipmen and five sailors in that harbor on the night of June 11. He reports to the Navy Department that while proceeding on a dark night from shore in his launch to rejoin his ship, he was almost run down by a tug and poorly lighted tow. It was not until the launch was almost upon it, that the tow was discovered. Only quick work saved the launch and its occupants from being run down and rolled under the barge. Yesterday a report reached the Navy Department of an exactly similar occurrence which happened to the launch of another of the ships in Hampton Roads a day or two ago, the same complaint being made as to the invisibility of the lights until the launch was almost under the tow. The report has been referred to the supervising inspector general of steam vessels, for the purpose of having him enforce the regulations with regard to the proper display of lights on tows.

Away out somewhere in the Atlantic Ocean is the seat of all the trouble with the weather these days. According the Weather Bureau, with a high barometric pressure there, approaching the unusual, winds have floated shoreward and enshrouded the country east of the Mississippi. The atmosphere has been burden for a week east of the Mississippi with a humidity that borders onto a record. Unless something unusual happens in the Atlantic, there will be a continuation of the humidity for seveal days. The only relief can come from Rocky mountain breezes.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

One of the most important days at the Jamestown Exposition will on be August 8, when Cardinal Gibbons, as a guest of the Knights of Columbus, will again visit the Exposition to participate in the exercises of the occasion.

The national convention will begin its session on August 6. Knights from Chicago will arrive in Washington at 8 o'clock Sunday morning and will at once board the steamer Norfolk for a trip down the Potomac river, stopping at Mount Vernon and Old Point Comfort, also passing the fleet of warships, and will arrive in Norfolk at 6 o'clock on Sunday evening, August 4. Mass will be offered on the boat on Sunday morning by special permission of Cardinal Gibbons.

Cardinal Gibbons will be the guest of honor on August 7. The Exposition management has taken particular care in preparing a special programme.

Among the distinguished guests invited to participate in these exercises are Hon. Claude A Swanson, governor of Virginia.

In the evening a ball under the direction of the local committee of the Knights of Columbus will be given in the Exposition's enormous convention hall.

THE ELKS.

According to the report of the secretary of the order of Elks now in session in Philadelphia the order has now passed the quarter of a million mark in membership, there being in existence 1,081 lodges with a membership of 254,532. The report of the grand trustee recommended that owing to the large fund now in the treasury, amounting to more than $250,000, the per capita tax be reduced to fifteen cents.

Officers elected to serve for the ensuing year by the Grand Lodge of Elks were John K. Tener, of Charleroi, grand exalted ruler; Edward W. Leach, of New York, grand treasurer; Fred C. Robinson, of Dubuque, Ia., grand secretary; Bayard Gray, of Frankford, Ind., grand lecturing knight; Thomas F. McNulty, of Baltimore; Mayor Charles Schmitz, of Wheeling, W. Va., and Thomas B. Mills, of Superior, Wis., grand trustee.

It is said that Philadelphia is not entirely satisfied with the returns it is receiving from the outlay of $150,000 for a court of honor, electric lights, decorations, and official entertainments to the Elks and that some friction exists between the committee representing the city and the Elks. All will probably come out all right, however.

News of the Day.

The State and federal courts are still at odds in North Carolina over the railroad rate laws.

The widow of William Inman, formerly of Georgia, denies the report that she was married in New York yesterday to J. B. Duke, the tobacco magnate.

Thebaud Brothers, one of the oldest and best known commission houses in New York city, assigned yesterday. Estimates of the liabilities ranged from $600,000 to more than $1,000,000.

Another case of "welching" was reported at Brighton Beach yesterday, when "markers" to the extent of $25,000 were not paid by Tony Brown, who is well known as a betting commissioner for some big plungers.

There was a terrible cloudburst at Vienna yesterday. The streets were flooded. It is stated that the outlying suburbs of Neuwaldegg and Hernals were destroyed. According to reports there were many victims.

There was a destructive cloudburst at Oakland, Md., early yesterday morning. Railroad property west of Oakland has been greatly damaged by landslides and washouts, and no passenger trains have been able to get through to the east at all.

The Philippine Commission has just enacted a law, prohibiting the manufacture in the islands or the introduction there from the United States or any foreign county of adulterated, misbranded, poisonous or deleterous foods, drugs, medicines and liquors.

Gov. Blanchard, of Louisiana, yesterday sentenced George Stewart, alias Montgomery, the negro, to be hanged at Covington, on tomorrow, July 19. The crime for which Steward was convicted was an attack on Mrs. Lacrox. It was committed on July 7, and only twelve days will have elapsed between the crime and the hanging.

The Italian Osservatore Romano yesterday published a decree of the holy office containing a syllabus, which consists of sixty-five articles, condemning the erroneous theories on the historical and religions value of the Bible and the origin of Christianity, which attack the base of Christianity and are disapproved by even the schismatic Protestant and Anglican churches.

The steamship Alleghany, of the Philadelphia-Savannah Line, of Merchant and Miners' Transportation Company, was burned off Tybee, Ga., yesterday evening. All her passengers were saved, but the vessel will be a total loss. The passengers were transferred to the government dredge and taken to Savannah. The Alleghany had left Savannah yesterday afternoon and was bound up.

Probably the worst flood that ever visited the towns and country districts for 40 miles to the east of Grafton, W. Va., and particularly the towns along the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, occurred yesterday, due to a cloudburst that broke about 6 o'clock yesterday morning. Tracks have been washed out, bridges and buildings washed away, and much damage has been done to stock and crops. Three persons were drowned, and there were a number of miraculous escapes from serious injury.

Fourteen persons were injured, seven seriously, in a street car collision yesterday on the lines of the Butler Passenger Railway at the Standard Steel Car Works terminal, Lyndora, a suburb or Butler, Pa. The cars were running down a sharp grade, both being crowded with workmen, when suddenly the brakes of the rear car let go and the motorman was powerless. The runaway car plunged down the incline, crashing into the forward car, which had come to a standstill near the terminal. The legs of the injured were caught as the platform of the rear car telescoped that of the forward car. The injured were buried in the wreckage of the cars, and the legs of two of the passengers were cut off as with a knife and found many yards from the wreckage.

RIOTERS INDICTED.

The special grand jury convened Tuesday in Roanoke by Judge John W. Woods to investigate the riot of last Saturday night, when a mob wrecked all the Greek restaurants in town, finished its work yesterday afternoon, after hearing evidence from 60 witnesses. Twenty indictments have been found and turned over to Sheriff Tillett, and 10 arrests have already been made.

The grand jury will meet again on Wednesday of next week. The Corporation Court is sitting, and it is expected that those arrested on the charge of rioting will be tried at once.

Because the City Council Tuesday night refused to appoint a committee with full power to investigate the damage done Greek restaurants by rioters, and make full settlement at once, as requested by Mayor Cutchin in his message to the council Tuesday night, the Mayor yesterday issued the following call for a mass-meeting of the citizens:

"A mass-meeting of the citizens of Roanoke who are interested in vindicating the good name and reputation of the city is hereby called to meet at the courthouse on Thursday evening, July 18, at 8:30 o'clock, to take up and adjust matters relative to the disturbance of Saturday night last. Every citizen who is willing to shoulder a responsibility that the city council failed to meet at its meeting last night is earnestly requested to be present. Matters of grave importance confront the good people of Roanoke, and should receive attention".

FITZSIMMONS KNOCKED OUT.

Jack Johnson, colored, stopped "Bob" Fitzsimmons in the second round of a six-round boxing bout before the Washington Sporting Club last night at Philadelphia. Fitzsimmons did not show a trace of his former prowess, and it is probable that Johnson could have stopped him in the opening round if he had cared to do so. The blow that put Fitz out was a right to the jaw. The old man fell to the floor, and as he made no attempt to rise, the referee stopped the bout. The hissing which usually follows knockouts of this character was absent, the spectators evidently taking compassion on the former pugilistic star. Referee Keenan refused to act in the ring because he heard that Fitz had a badly sprained arm. The manager of the club then entered the ring and watched the uneven match. In the opening round Johnson tapped Fitz when and where he chose, but the latter was unable to even land his famous counters.

Virginia News.

Subterranean caverns which bid fair to rival Weyer Cave and the famous Luray Caverns, have just been opened near Staunton and will shortly be fully explored and equipped for visitors.

During the last few weeks 100 deserters have been listed and advertised from the battleship Minnesota, one of the warships in Hampton Roads. The Norfolk police force was yesterday notified of 15 desertions.

Ruth C. Bain, a handsome young woman from Richmond, went to Washington to see the sights several days ago, and was enjoying herself when Detectives Burlingame and Weedon located her at a boarding-house yesterday, at the request of her mother, Mrs. T. C. Bain, of Richmond. Miss Bain spent last night in the House of Detention in company with her mother. Both returned to Richmond this morning, and the mother intimates the young woman will have no further opportunity to indulge her inclination to travel alone.

Mrs. Johanna Deitrich, of Henrico county, Va., an aged woman, the owner of a fine dairy farm, was badly injured Tuesday evening while crossing a lot in which a number of cows were kept. Mrs. Deitrich was attacked by a cow which, it is believed, is suffering from a distemper. The animal knocked her down and gored out one of her eyes, and then tossed the helpless old woman on its horns, finally landing her on the ground and pawing her. Mrs. Deitrich, in addition to losing an eye, had a hip broken. It is not thought she can live many days.

COL. AYRES' CASE.

Lieut. Col. Charles G. Ayres, whose wife was barred from the reservation at West Point, faced at the Army Building in New York yesterday a retiring board, which is to determine under orders from the War Department whether he is fit for further service. The appointment of the board is supposed to have been due chiefly to remarks attributed to Colonel Ayres after his wife had criticised the order of the West Point commandant prohibiting cadets from lending their coats to young women. Colonel Ayres was quoted in defense of his wife and was represented as saying things uncomplimentary to the service. The colonel refused either to affirm or deny his responsibility for the statements when called upon by the War Department.

If there had been any hope that Colonel Ayres would bring relief to an embarrassming situation by retiring without the inquiry, it was dispelled when he answered the first question.

"Do you wish to retire?" asked the court, in accordance with the manual governing such proceedings.

"I do not," replied Col. Ayres, with the emphasis on the "not."

In reply to a question as to whether he was represented by counsel, Colonel Ayres said:

"No, I have not any counsel, and I do not know that I want one. If I am here to be examined as to my physical fitness I don't need counsel. I have been examined by army surgeons twice within the last year and was found sound both times. If necessary, I am ready again—ready for either a physical or a mental examination."

The colonel added, however, that if he was going to be examined on anything else he wanted to know it.

"I haven't seen any specifications; I don't know what this is all about," said he.

Colonel Ayres asked once or twice more what the specifications are, but nobody on the board seemed able to enlighten him.

"What extraneous matters are to be introduced?" he asked.

General Davis finally intimated that the scope of the inquiry would have to be determined later on and would depend largely upon the findings of the medical officers. The board adjourned until this morning, when it is likely that the surgeons will have some report to make in regard to the physical examination of the colonel.

New York, July 18.—Despite a vigorous protest from Col. Ayres the special medical board which is to determine whether he shall be retired from the army, today decided to continue its hearing until Saturday. Maj. Edie and Capt. Wadhams, the medical members of the board instructed yesterday to make a mental and physical examination of Col. Ayres, reported they wished more time. Col. Ayres interrupted the proceedings, saying he wanted to make a statement. "Not at this time," directed General Davis, president of the board. "This is a subject for the board to decide." The board went into executive session to decide what should be done. It was then announced that an adjournment until Saturday had been ordered. This delay caused Col. Ayres to become impatient. He explained after the hearing that his purpose in asking to make a statement was to hurry the proceedings.

"I want to whoop it up," he said, "I am getting tired of the affair."

Friends of Col. Ayres still insist the purpose of ordering him before the retiring board was to secure his retirement in this way and avoid a court martial to try Ayres for his criticism of army officers growing out of the quarrel of his wife with the West Point Academy officials which resulted in barring Mrs. Ayres from the reservation.

Best Medicine in the World for Colic and Diarrhoea.

"I find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to be the best remedy in the world," says Mr. C. L. Carter of Skirum, Ala. "I am subject to colic and diarrhoea. Last spring it seemed as though I would die, and I think I would if I hadn't taken Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a severe attack and took half a bottle of the twenty-five cent size Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." Today's Telegraphic News.

The Trial of Carl Hau.

Carlrahue, Germany, July 18.—A serious discrepancy in the testimony of witnesses, distinctly favorable to the prisoner, was the chief feature of the early stage of today's hearing in the trial of Carl Hau, on the charge of killing his mother-in-law, Frau Molitor.

The impression Hau evidently is attempting to create, that he is making a martyr of himself and shielding some other persons, even at the risk of conviction, was strengthened today by his further refusal to answer questions put by Judge Eller. Most significant was his refusal to answer when asked if his relations with Olga Molitor had ever been over-friendly. Miss Molitor, on the stand, indignantly denied any improper relations with Hau.

One of the questions asked Hau, intimated that he might have intended to shoot Olga and hit the mother by mistake. He declined to answer.

Only once has Hau broken down since the trial began. That was late yesterday when Judge Eller read an extract from Mrs. Hau's will providing that her daughter should take another name.

"That goes to show that your wife thought you guilty," said the judge.

Pushing back the tears Hau, answered: "During all the time I have been in prison I never once had the chance to talk to my wife privately. Always there were guards present. Could I have talked to her I could have convinced her of my innocence.."

Organs Removed.

Clinton, Ill., July 18.—By the glimmer of dim lanterns and with the utmost secrecy, the body of Mrs. "Pet" Magill was exhumed, the vital organs were removed and placed in the care of Chicago's specialists. Then the body was replaced in the casket and the grave refilled.

The attempt of Lillian Ryan, 22 years old, to commit suicide near the grave of Mrs. Magill has created a sensation. She was found lying close to the Magill lot, almost dead from a dose of chloroform. She was removed to the hospital. When partially revived the girl repeatedly cried: "Oh, Fred. Oh, Fred." She is not known to have been intimately acquainted with either the former banker or Fay Graham Magill, and it is supposed her mind has been affected by brooding over the affair.

The Telegraphers.

New York, July 18.—"We have no official information from President Small and we are simply waiting," said Secretary McInery of the local telegraphers here today. "We are expecting the strike signal any moment and are ready for it. The situation is unchanged so far as we are officially informed."

In regard to the complaint filed by the union against the Western Union for putting cots in the general office building, Chief Sanitary Inspector Ranney, of the Health Department, today said:

"It is no violation of the law to put cots in a building. When the beds are occupied we can make an inspection of the sanitary conditions, but until then there is nothing that we can do."

Investigating Accident.

Boston, July 18—The report of the board of inquiry which is investigating the disaster on board the battleship Georgia will probably be forwarded to Washington today. From unofficial but trustworthy sources it is learned today that several members of the board expressed an opinion that the accident was due not to a spark, but to spontaneous combustion of gases generated by the extreme rapid firing. The crew in the upper turret were working vigorously, straining every nerve to break the record for quick work, and the close interior of the steel box was filled with highly inflammable vapors generated by the discharge of the big guns. This explanation has practically been forced upon the board, as a minute search has failed to discover any evidence in support of the spark theory. The death list remains at nine.

The Haywood Case.

Boise, Idaho, July 18.—A crisis has been reached in the Haywood case. Attorneys for the prosecution and defense are fighting today for the preservation in the record of evidence on which the verdict will largely depend.

The prosecution completed its rebuttal late yesterday afternoon. Attorney Darrow, for the defense, says he will probably call no witnesses in sur-rebuttal. Should he change his mind, he added, their testimony will take not more than thirty minutes.

On the defense's request three of the prosecution's rebuttal witnesses were ordered held within the court's jurisdiction, the plain inference being that the defense contemplates asking warrants for their arrest.

The defense rested its case today and arguments were begun.

Sword-Swallower Seeks Relief.

New York, July 18.—His mind filled with delusions and his stomach with hardware, A. J. Pierce, a sword swallower, sought relief at Bellevue Hospital today. Pierce's trick is to palm the junk he pretends to pass down his esophagus, but now and then there is a slip and a piece of bric-a-brac slides into his stomach When the accumulation begins to weigh him down uncomfortably Pierce visits a hospital and cleans house. Dr. Healy, of Bellevue, remembers assisting at such a renovating when he was in Montreal several years ago. The "swallower's present complaint is more startling than usual. He believes he has engulfed a calvary sabre.

Marriage Nullified.

Paris, July 18.—Through the decision of a court today nullifying the marriage of Prince Robert de Broglie to Mrs. Sidney B. Velt, the California beauty, in Chicago in August last, the way is made clear for the young prince to marry the woman under French law in spite of his father's opposition. Prince Robert has already declared this his intention. A surprise was sprung on his father, who brought the suit to set aside his son's marriage, by the young prince at the hearing yesterday when his attorney admitted the wedding was not technically legal. He urged an immediate judgment so that his client might comply fully with the law in remarrying Mrs. Velt.

Women Attacked

New York, July 18.—Three more women were the victim of attacks today. Mrs. Catharine Doul, 62 years old, was beaten so badly by an unknown man in a lonely field at Winfield, borough of Queens, that she is dying at a Long Island City hospital. Miss Mary Mooney, a passenger on a train from Rockaway Beach to Long Island City, was misled by a man in a neighboring seat into thinking Bushwick Junction her station, left the train, was attacked at a lonely spot in the road and only escaped after a fierce struggle through aid of a passer by. Mrs. Harrison, deceived into believing a stranger on an "L" train an old acquaintance, was lured to a down town hotel, took a drink which she thinks was drugged, became unconscious and was evidently beaten with a black jack and robbed of a considerable sum.

So numerous have been attacked recently on women and children and so little progress have the police made in stamping out the epidemic that meetings have been called in several suburbs tonight to form vigilant committees. Complaint has been made to high officials of the police department that the precinct commanders have in many instances merely laughed at persons who reported such crimes. Police Commissioner Bingeam says he will investigate the accusations.

The Elks' Parade.

Philadelphia, July 18.—Flanked by a multitude of more than half a million cheering spectators 10,000 Elks marched in annual review down Board street, today. No more picturesque procession has been witnessed in this city, almost every lodge in the long line being garbed or badged in a manner typical of its home city.

Shortly after 10 o'clock Grand Esquire John P. Sullivan, who was grand marshal, of the parade, gave the signal to start, and the big pageant begin moving.

A feature of the showing was an immense banner on which was a portrait of Meade D. Detwiler, former Grand Exalted Duke in honor of whose memory a shaft stands at Harrisburg.

Anti-Jewish Massacre.

Warsaw, Poland, July 18.—Hundreds of persons were killed or injured today in an anti-Jewish massacre at Skonitr, a Polish town on the Austrian border. Cossacks have temporarily restored order. Hundreds of Jews fled from the city and are seeking safety by crossing into Austria. Men, women and children were cut down indiscriminately by the rioters. In many instances women and girls were mistreated before being put to death. One party of thirty-seven Jews was overtaken and 25 killed, while the others were badly beaten and cut. Not until the Ghetto had been cleaned out did the peasants desist. Then Cossacks assumed control. Further outbreaks are feared, however.

Deaths From Heat.

New York, July 18.—Eight persons died from heat in New York up to 1 o'clock this afternoon. Prostration cases crowd the hospitals. Their number runs into the hundreds. The thermometer registered 88 at noon and was still rising. The great humidity added to the suffering. To escape the stifling tenements countless families camped on Coney Island sands last night. Tonight the number will be greatly increased. The parks will also be thrown open.

Accident on Southern Railway.

Washington, July 18—It is announced from the Southern Railway offices here that northbound passenger train No. 36 was derailed at Richland, S. C., forty miles south of Greenville, S. C., at 5:30 o'clock this morning, overturning the engine and badly injuring the postal and express car. The firemen and several passengers were injured, but it is not known how seriously.

Petition Rejected.

Brest, France, July 18.—The libel suit for damages brought by Alexandre Greger, Russian diplomat, against Count Rodelleo du Porseck, growing out of the theft of the famous blue diamond belonging to Countess Du Porseck, ended today with the courts rejection of Greger's petition. He was ordered to pay the costs of the suit.

Cloudburst and Lightning.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 18.—Cloudbursts and lightning wrought havoc west of Pittsburg yesterday. Eastern Ohio and West Virginia, especially in the Ohio river valley were the localities visited. Already eight deaths are reported and later returns are likely to lengthen the death roll.

Suicide.

New York, July 18.—Discouraged because his poor English made it impossible for him to get work, Hugo Lobe, 16 years old, and recently from Hamburg, locked himself in the bath room of his boarding place in Harlem today and turned on the gas. He was found dead a few hours later.

Fatal Accident.

Wilmington, Del., July 18.—Jumping from a freight train as it was entering the Pennsylvania yards here today, Edward Stenke, aged 50 years, of Brooklyn, was run down by a switch engine and both legs amputated. He died later in the Delaware Hospital. He is a widower and leaves four children.

Anna Gould to Remarry?

Paris, July 18.—A news agency today sends out a report that Mme Anna Gould, whose final decree of divorce from Count Boni de Castellane has just been confirmed, is to marry Prince Helie de Sagan. An engagement will shortly be announced it is reported.

The New York Stock Market.

New York, July 18.—After a slight decline in the early trading the stock market became strong and prices of the most important issues recovered a large part of the losses of yesterday. There was active buying all around the room. The bulk of the buying seemed to be on manipulative orders for some bull accommodation. Government bonds unchanged; railroad and other bonds steady.

Edward Morgan father-in-law of August Belmont, died suddenly at his home in New York yesterday of pneumonia. He was seventy-one years old, and was a retired banker. His daughter, Bessie H. Morgan, married August Belmont twenty-six years ago.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

The Fate of Korea.

Seoul, Korea, July 18.—The Emperor of Korea is to see Marquis Ito, of Japan, today. Their conference will probably decide the Korean ruler's fate. With Foreign Minister Hayashi of Japan, hurrying to Seoul, bearing an ultimatum from the Mikado, there seems no doubt that today's meeting between Ito and the Emperor was arranged by the latter to forestall the Japanese sovereign's message.

Placards were posted in the principal street today calling for the assassination of all Japanese officials in Seoul. Troops are in readiness to nip rioting in the bud. The Japanese program is understood to include the enforced abdication of the emperor and the enthrowning of the Crown Prince.

TROUBLE IN D. OF C.

Trouble has broken out in the ranks of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The Daughters decided to build a house at the exposition—a replica of Beauvoir—and Mrs. Frank Anthony Walke, of Norfolk, was placed at the head of the movement. Mrs. Walke succeeded admirably in her undertaking and the building was one of the few ready for the exposition on opening. To Mrs. Walke's indefatigability was due much of the success of the enterprise, for she collected much of the funds and personally directed the completion of the building. When the time arrived to name a hostess for the building for the exposition Mrs. Walke was unceremoniously pushed aside by some of the ladies, and she and many of her friends think she has been badly treated. So when Mrs. Walke was requested to "assist" on Richmond day and to do the honors at the building she declined.

Miss Anna Normoyle, twenty-two years of age, leaped to her death in Chicago late yesterday afternoon by jumping through an open window on the fifteenth floor of the Masonic Temple and a moment later was lying a mass of broken bones and bruised flesh on the floor near the elevator cages.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

A meeting of the city democratic committee was held in the Fleischmann Hotel last night. Chairman Charles Bendheim presided. Mr. C. B. Graham, chairman of the county democratic committee was present.

The meeting was held for the purpose of fixing upon a date for holding a primary election to select a candidate for the House of Delegates, and the following resolution was adopted:

Be it resolved by the Democratic Committee of the city and county of Alexandria, That there be held on the 10th day of September, 1907, a primary election to nominate a candidate to represent the city and county of Alexandria in the House of Delegates of Virginia, and that all persons who desire to become candidates for said office give notice thereof in writing to the chairman of the joint committee on or before the 15th day of August, 1907.

Mr. Graham, who was present as representative of the county committee, was fully in accord with the action of the city committee, but it was understood that if the county committee fails to approve the resolution it will be rescinded.

Should there be but one democratic candidate, he will be declared the choice of the party, and no primary will be held.

MAY SELL THE ROAD.

It is reported that negotiations are pending for the sale of the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway to the Great Falls and Old Dominion Road. The former road is the line on which recently occurred the collision between a crowded passenger car and a work car loaded with steel rails, as the result of which one passenger (George Waring, of Ballston,) was killed and a score of others severely hurt. The coroner's inquest showed a lack of equipment for the proper conduct of a busy railway line and the State commissioners of Virginia have ordered improvements. The Great Falls, on the contrary, is splendidly built and equipped. It is owned by John R. McLean and Senator Elkins. Since the disastrous wreck, the officials of the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church road are said to have realized that they cannot meet the demands of the indignant patrons and improve their road, as they will probably be called on to do so.

REFUSE CONFERENCE.

George W. Elliott, secretary of the Bricklayers' Union of Washington, today received from the Employers' Association an answer to the letter which the union addressed about a week ago to that association asking a conference. The board of governors of the Employers' Association held a meeting yesterday afternoon to consider and take action on the bricklayers' communication. The board's reply was forwarded to Mr. Elliott, who is also secretary of the arbitration committee of the Bricklayers' Union, last evening. It is said that the Employer's Association will not grant the conference which was asked for. The employers say that even if the bricklayers decided to go out on a strike, there would be no trouble in carrying on all the building operations which are now in progress with nonunion men.

DID NOT GO.

Captain Murphy, of the Alexandria Light Infantry, gives a very satisfactory reason for his company not taking part in a sham battle to have come off at Luna Park last night. He says that a few days ago he was requested by some of the park officials to have his command at Luna Park last night to take part in a sham battle and that he was told that transportation and entrance to the grounds would be furnished them. He had his command at the armory last night to embark, but as no car had been provided and the railroad officials appeared to know nothing about the matter, he declined to take his men to the park and dismissed them. He says later he was informed that a car was at his disposal, but then it was too late to get his men together again.

NEW EQUIPMENT.

It is officially announced that the Southern Railway Company will at once purchase fifty new locomotives, seventy-five passenger coaches, four dining cars, six combination mail and baggage cars, six combination passenger and baggage cars, and two hundred cabooses. The general purpose in view in ordering this new equipment is the strengthening of the passenger and freight service of the railway. The new coaches are to be of the most approved modern type. The two hundred new caboose cars are necessary to supply a need which has grown out of the rapid increase in freight train service—the cabooses now in service not being sufficient in number to properly equip freight trains.

GOLF CLUB DANCE.

The usual alternate-weekly dance will be given at the Golf Club on Saturday night. Quite a number of out of town guests are expected. This will probably be the last dance until September, as the house committee has decided to discontinue them during August owing to the large number of people who are away that month. A card party will be given at the club Saturday, the 27th. All the club members are asked to come to both of these entertainments.

PASSING OF OLD LANDMARK

The work of demolishing the old brick building at the northeast corner of King and Columbus streets preparatory to the erection of the Fairfax Apartment House is being rapidly pushed. In 1861 the Alexandria Riflemen, afterwards company A of the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment, was quartered in this building, and after the company vacated it (May 24) the United States provost marshal had his headquarters there.

EXCURSION TODAY.

The members of Fitzgerald Council, No. 459, Knights of Columbus, gave an excursion to Luna Park today. A large number of people who were unable to patronize the excursion today will take the evening trains to the park.

ITHACA BAND AT LUNA PARK.

The Ithaca Band, conceded to be one of the greatest musical organizations in the country, is now in its second week at Luna Park, pleasing the patrons of this pleasure resort as has no other musical embodiment at any time during the park's history. Conway can crowd more genuine music into a given space of time than any bandmaster before the public. The pleasing manner in which he responds to encores is a noticeable feature characteristic of this popular conductor.

Another valued interlineation in connection with the band is the charming solo work of Madam Atwater, the cultured soprano. Then there are solo musicians in plenty, who line up in their respective turns to help make every selection a musical gem.

The open air vaudeville for the current week is furnished by the great "Alfreno," a daring high wire artist, who cooks, eats, sleeps and does all sorts of intricate antics upon a one hundred and fifty foot cable at a height that makes you strain your neck to witness his daring performance. "Alfreno," whose appellation is "The King of the Wire," is one of the free features the park management offers for the final week of the Ithaca Band engagement. Like the Beachey air ship, "Alfreno" has a novel specialty to present, which will unquestionably serve as a sensation.

Next week's attraction at the park will be Mlle. Loubet, who brings with her a carload of paraphernalia necessary for her daring loop-the-loop performance.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The Police Court met this afternoon and disposed of the following cases:

Wm. Murphy, colored, arrested as a suspicious character, was dismissed.

Philip Twyman, colored, charged with attempting to rob Mr. James Roche's store window, was sent to jail for four months.

Lena Harris, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

Florence Devlin, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited her collateral by failing to appear.

Morgan Moore, who had been arrested for assault on Albert Magalis, gave his personal bond in the sum of $50 to keep the peace for three months.

Melville Johnson, a colored boy, charged with stealing newspapers from doors of houses, was sent to jail for 30 days.

DEATH OF DR. KELLEY.

Dr. Edward F. Kelley, who will be remembered by many in our community, died at Fulton, N. Y., last Monday. At the outbreak of the civil war he left Alexandria as a member of the Alexandria Riflemen, Co. A, 17th Virginia Infantry, C. S. A., and was later detailed to the medical department of the army in which he served until the close of the war. He married Miss Janet Baldwin English, daughter of the late James A. English and sister of Mrs. Francis J. Davidson, and, locating in Pulaski, N. Y., was a practicing physician over thirty years. He is survived by his wife, four daughters and two sons. The interment was at Pulaski today.

ACCIDENTS.

A little daughter of James Clark, living on Franklin street, had one of her hands seriously cut yesterday evening by a boy named Peyton. The cutting was accidental.

A little child named Adams was knocked down and run over by a wagon on south Lee street this morning. The child fortunately escaped serious injury.

FUGITIVE CAPTURED.

Officer Bell yesterday evening arrested a one-legged negro named Philip Twyman near Roberts crossing, about a mile from this city, charged with breaking the glass in the window of Mr. James Roche's store early yesterday morning. Twyman was with Oscar Nichols when an attempt was made to rob the window, and when Officers Knight and Lyles appeared the darkeys ran. Officer Knight captured Nichols, but Twyman managed to escape. The latter was brought before the Police Court this afternoon and sent to jail for four months.

STREET EXTENSION.

Mr. W. C. Weadon has been given the contract by the electric railway company for opening and extending Cameron street from Payne westward to connect with the company's line outside the city limits. When the street is opened a track will be laid thereon which will give the railroad a double track in the city from the western limits to Columbus street.

POLICE WHISTLES.

Some excitement was caused in the vicinity of Prince and St. Asaph streets about one o'clock this morning by the blowing of police whistles. It seems that some negroes were irritating Chinese laundrymen, and the latter had blown the whistles. The darkeys disappeared before the arrival of the police.

ANNIVERSARY.

Today is the forty-sixth anniversary of the battle of Blackburn's Ford, the first battle in this section of the State, which was fought on July 18, 1861. The Seventeenth Virginia regiment, from this city, was in the fight which was followed three days later by the battle of Bull Run.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Andrew Underwood took place this morning from the residence on Wolfe street, between Fairfax and Royal. The services were conducted by Rev. C. D. Bulla and the interment was made in the M. P. Church cemetery.

THE WEATHER.

This has been one of the most offensive days of the summer. The mercury at 3 o'clock this evening stood at 94°, while the humidity has been intense all day. The weather bureau gives no indications of cooler weather.

THEFT OF WATCH.

As was stated in the Gazette, Chester Wilson, colored, was arrested yesterday in Washington charged with stealing a watch belonging to Mr. F. C. Spinks, of this city. Lieutenant Smith, who had notified the Washington authorities of the theft, sent Officer Roberts after Wilson, and he subsequently returned with the prisoner and watch. Today the man who bought the watch from Wilson came to this city and identified him, and Wilson was brought before the Police Court this afternoon, and had his case continued.

SUMMER LETTERS.

"Dear Husband—Much to my surprise
I find expenses mounting;
Your last week's check is all used up
Despite my best accounting.
My health demands I stay away,
And, therefore, to my sorrow,
I need a hundred more at once,
So please remit tomorrow."
(Explanation: Bridge.)
Dear Wife—My loneliness is great,
So words cannot express it;
I keep your picture on my desk
And every hour caress it.
The modest sum for which you ask
Shall not go by unheeded,
And, so, I send two hundred now,
In case more may be needed."
(Explanation: Poker.)

Bad Burn Quickly Healed.

"I am so delighted with what Chamberlain's Salve has done for me that I feel bound to write and tell you so," says Mrs. Robert Mytton, 457 John St., Hamilton, Ontario. "My little daughter had a burn on her knee. I applied Chamberlain's Salve and it healed beautifully." This salve allays the pain of a burn almost instantly. It is for sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

BITTEN BY SNAKE.

Dr. Murrin, of the Georgetown University Hospital, was called upon Tuesday to treat the first case of snakebite in that vicinity this season. The patient was the baby daughter of Mrs. Sarah Ridgeway, who lives on the Canal road, near Chain Bridge. The child is only two and a half years old and is a deaf-mute. It had just stepped off the porch of its home when it grabbed at its foot and began gesticulating. Its mother rushed out and examined the injured foot, and discovered the cause of the child's pain and terror.

A man who was walking along the canal at the time turned sharply when the child shrieked and saw the snake release its hold. He killed it with a stick and threw it into the canal. The snake was a copperhead, over three feet long, which had evidently come up on the road from the river bottoms.

The child was taken hurriedly to the Georgetown Hospital. Upon arrival there the foot was greatly swollen and discolored. Dr. Murrin cut deep into the fang, or teeth marks, and bled the wound freely. It was then baudaged and the child was taken home. No bad effects are anticipated by the doctors who say that prompt treatment probably saved the child's limb, or possibly its life.

Dr. Murrin is much worried, because in a moment of thoughtlessness he sucked the wound, notwithstanding he had a slight sore on his lip.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
